D A
In the middle of the morning, in the middle of the night

A D
I'm in the middle of loving you for the rest of my life

D G
In the middle of wanting to always be by your side

D A D
I'm so happy, so lucky, so grateful you are my bride

And I remember that morning when I first saw you
You were standing there had a flower in your hair and wearing those funny red shoes
And a great big smile and golden hair with the sun shining through
I'm so happy, so lucky, so grateful to be in love with you

And early one morning, late one night
You brought two, strong, fine sons into our lives
And with your great big heart you brought us a daughter too
I'm so happy, so lucky, so grateful to be in love with you

In the middle of the morning, in the middle of the night
I'm in the middle of loving you for the rest of my life
In the middle of wanting to always be by your side
I'm so happy, so lucky, grateful you are my bride

Early in the morning when you're lying there
With your head upon the pillow in a sea of silver hair
And a sleepy smile as love slips into your eyes
I'm such a happy, such a lucky, grateful guy

In the middle of the morning, in the middle of the night
I'm in the middle of loving you for the rest of my life
In the middle of wanting to always be by your side

I'm so happy, so lucky, so grateful

So grateful, so happy, so lucky

So happy and lucky and grateful you are my bride
